TERMS AND CONDITIONS (STADIUM EVENTS)

1. These are entirely "At Your Own Risk" events. Football For Fans Limited and the Football Club applicable to the event cannot accept responsibility for any death, personal injury or injury to a participant, howsoever caused, unless proven to be through an act of gross negligence. Participating clubs and individuals are encouraged to make sure they have their own personal and public liability insurance in place before entering the event.
2. Football For Fans Limited and the Football Club applicable to the event cannot accept responsibility for any death or injury to any person(s) visiting (participant or spectator) the stadium, howsoever caused, unless through an act of gross negligence or for any loss of personal property/possessions. Every individual (or responsible individual) is responsible for their own safety (and the safety of minor(s) under their control) and safe-keeping of their personal property/possessions at all times.
3. The deposit is due by the date stipulated by Football For Fans Limited or other such date as agreed by Football For Fans Limited. The deposit will be non-refundable unless another club/individual (as applicable) can be found as a replacement in the event.
4. The balance of any monies owed is due by the date stipulated by Football For Fans Limited or other such date as agreed by Football For Fans Limited. Failure to pay by the stipulated date could result in your club/individual (as applicable) being removed from the competition and a refund will only be paid if another club/individual (as applicable) can be found as a replacement in the event.
5. If for any reason a payment by cheque is returned unpaid by the issuing bank, or has to be re-presented, a charge of £15 will be levied to cover bank and administration charges incurred.
6. Football For Fans Limited reserve the right to cancel an event if any circumstances arise which are out of their control, whether or not such circumstances may be deemed foreseeable, and they will not be liable for any loss of monies, or costs, of any description (individually or collectively), incurred as a result of said cancellation.
7. Participating clubs/Individuals will be held responsible for any damage to the premises/property of the Football Club hosting the event.
8. Vehicles are left in the stadium car park or surrounding area entirely at the owners risk. Football For Fans Limited and the Football Club applicable to the event cannot be held responsible for any loss, theft or damage, of whatever extent and howsoever caused.
